Code of Conduct for the Chairperson and Members of the Child Welfare Committee

Child Welfare Committee is the most critical district level body for ensuring appropriate implementation of the Juvenile Justice Act in reference to a Child in Need of Care and Protection. The law empowers CWC to be the final authority for the care, treatment, protection, development and rehabilitation of CNCP and for disposing all complaints related to these children while ensuring that their basic needs are met. Being the Chairperson or Member of the Child Welfare Committee is a rare honour and it calls for a discipline which is exemplary. The Chairperson and Members of the Committee shall observe the following code of conduct in carrying out their responsibilities:

1. The Chairperson and Members shall participate in all sittings of the Committee, and employ his/her expertise in dealing with the children, to enable the Committee to take the most appropriate decisions in cases brought before it. They shall not absentee themselves from the Committee sittings except for unavoidable reason or for participating in conferences, workshops or training programme conducted or sponsored by the Government.

2. If the Chairperson and Members participate in other functions on the days, in which the Committee sitting is scheduled, it will be construed as lack of interest in the Committee work.

3. The Members shall ensure that they have at least three fourth attendance in the Committee sittings, or else withdraw voluntarily from the Committee, if such participation level cannot be maintained.

4. The Chairperson and Members shall ensure that they arrive at the committee hall at least half an hour in advance of the commencement of the sitting and familiarize themselves with the cases being posted for the day. Coming late and leaving early shall not be permitted. A minimum of six hours involvement in each of the Committee sitting is required to qualify a Member to sign on the attendance register. Each Member shall sign in the attendance register log on biometric punching whichever is applicable on every sitting day, indicating his/her time of arrival and departure from the committee hall.

5. The use of mobile phones within the committee hall is to be regulated. On entering the Committee hall, the Members and the staff shall keep their mobile phones switched off or on silent mode and shall avoid conversation unrelated to the cases under consideration.

6. The committee shall hold its sittings in the premises of the children’s home or at a place in the proximity to the children’s home or at a suitable place set up by the State Government.
Special sittings to address special situations or urgent problems may be held outside the regular sitting place depending on the urgency of the situation.

7. Every Member is required to keep a ‘work diary’ detailing his/her involvement in the Committee, and make it available for scrutiny, as and when required by the Chairperson.

8. No Member of the Committee is allowed to copy any part of the Minutes of the Committee without written permission of the Chairperson.

9. The Members shall not be allowed to carry any file or document in relation to the Committee to his/her personal custody, unless specifically authorized by the Chairperson.

10. The Chairperson and the Members shall not meet any child or his/ her family members or relatives, whose case is under the consideration of the Committee, in their residences or personal office, or visit such child in his/her residence, without the decision of the Committee. In case, such meeting is held in exceptional situations, the Chairperson shall be briefed at the earliest, and a detailed report shall be submitted to the Committee in the next sitting.

11. If the chairperson or the Members make visits to the Child Care Institutions in the District or to the residences of children whose cases are under the consideration of the Committee, observations made shall be reported to the committee and they shall be followed up by the Committee.

12. A child shall be produced before Chairperson or any member when CWC is not in sitting. Chairperson / member shall pass an appropriate temporary order and the case shall be ratified by the committee in the next sitting.

13. The Chairperson and Members of the Committee shall not do anything which may be construed as aiding the accused. They shall not meet the accused, in any case under consideration, in their residences or office and any chance meeting with such persons shall be reported to the Chairperson at earliest.

14. Chairperson or members shall not permit any person other than the agencies authorised under the JJ Act 2015 or rules made there under to conduct inquiry about a child whose case is under consideration before the committee. No one other than the authorised agency shall interfere or involve in any matter which is under consideration of the committee.

15. The decisions of the Committee are to be made after consultations among the Chairperson and Members present. If any Member holds a different view, he/she has to write out a separate dissenting note, and that is to be attached to the main document, and the matter is to be entered in the Minutes Book.
16. The Chairperson and the Members shall not offer any professional service to any accused person who is involved in any child abuse cases.

17. The Chairperson/Member shall pass on to the Committee, any additional information, relevant to the case under consideration, which he/she acquires outside the Committee settings from any source.

18. The Chairperson and Members shall keep every information related to the cases under consideration of the Committee confidential, and shall not divulge any such information to anyone outside the Committee, unless so advised by the former.

19. The Chairperson and Members of the Committee shall not comment on any decision of the Committee, in any fora outside the Committee.

20. The Chairperson and Members of the Committee shall not accept any monetary or other benefits or services from the child’s family or from any Child Care institution.

21. The Chairperson and Members giving reports or issuing orders which go against the rights of the child, or any law of the land, shall be treated as child rights violation.

22. The Chairperson or the Members of the Committee shall not consume alcohol, tobacco or such substances.

23. The committee while issuing temporary/final order shall pass a detailed and descriptive order.

24. In dealing with information received regarding an offence under the POSCO Act 2012, the Chairperson and Members shall:

i) immediately pass on to the police any information received in the Committee indicating that a child or children have been subjected to any offence under the POSCO Act 2012, with the direction to enquire into the matter and initiate appropriate action;

ii) direct the parents, police, DCPO, accredited NGO-s including the Child line, to be present the child in the committee sitting, if needed;

iii) not re-victimize the survivor by asking her to repeat the incident and no statement of the child shall be recorded with regard to the incident;

iv) interact with the child so as to build up confidence in him/her and prepare the child to cooperate with the investigation;
v) appoint support person as and when necessary to help the child through investigation and trial.

25. The Chairperson and Member shall, participate in trainings, conferences, or meetings as per the direction of the Director of Women and Child Department, the Selection Committee, Judiciary, or other statutory bodies, with prior intimation to the Chairperson. The Members shall also represent the Committee in meetings and conferences as and when delegated by the Chairperson.

26. The Member shall file any grievance he/she has against any other Member of the Committee or any others involved in carrying out his/her duties as Member, to the Chairperson. Any compliant against the Chairperson shall be submitted to the Director of Women and Child Development Department.

27. The Member shall submit his/her application for leave from the sittings of the Committee to the Chairperson, well in advance, so that he/she can schedule the sittings accordingly.

28. The member may help the Chairperson to carry out his/her duties as and when required, and also to maintain the records of the committee.

29. The Member shall report to the Chairperson of the Committee, on all matters related to the functioning of the Child Welfare Committee.

30. Chairperson shall call committee sittings, preside over the sittings and ensure that the minutes of the proceedings are accurately recorded.

31. Chairperson shall receive and initial on each petition with dates indicating their priority, carefully study them and arrange to allot register numbers.

32. All communications on behalf of the committee shall be initialed by the Chairperson and will bear his/her signature and seal of the Committee. All such communications shall be entered in the outward register and copies will be maintained in the respective files.

33. Chairperson will receive all communications addressed to the committee and ensure that all such communications are initialed by him/her and entered in the inward register and assigned a number and safely maintained in the respective case files. He will initiate appropriate action with regard to the matter contained in the letter and reply to those if needed without delay.

34. The Chairperson will ensure that periodical reports are sent to the District Magistrate.

35. If the Chairperson or members of the CWC are interacting with the media, they shall abide to the principles adhered under the JJ Act 2015.
36. The Chairperson and Members should ensure that they do not do anything which may be construed as belittling the status and responsibility of being a Bench of Magistrates, endowed with the final authority to provide for the care, protection, treatment, development, and rehabilitation of children.

Disqualification: The chairperson and members shall be terminated by the state government after making an inquiry, if—

1. He/she has been guilty of misuse of power vested on him under the Act;

2. He/she has been convicted of any offence involving moral turpitude and such conviction has not been reversed or he/she has not been granted full pardon in respect of such offence;

3. He fails to attend the proceedings of the committee consecutively for three months without valid reason or he fails to attend less than three-fourth of the sittings in a year;

4. If he/she is holding such full-time occupation that may not allow the person to give necessary time and attention to the work of committee as per the Act and rules;

5. If he/she is associated with any Child Care Institution, directly or indirectly, during the tenure of the committee or have any other conflict of interest;
